

ETC logo, one of the many, made by Nancy Mauro-Flude, ~2004.

Tech workshop event organised by women for women.

- 6-10 March 2012, Ljubljana, held in conjunction with the Red Dawns festival organised by Kiberpipa and Red Dawns, [1]
- 2010, Brussels, hosted by Interface3, La Compilothèque and Pianofabriek, [2]
- 2009, Istanbul, hosted by Haymatlos, [3]
- 2009, Umeå, hosted by HUMlab, [4]
- 7. 25-31 May 2008, Amsterdam, organized by the Genderchangers and EYFA, [5]
- 6a. 11-16 July 2007, Linz, hosted by Servus.at and MAIZ, [6]
- 6b. 2007, Salvador/Brazil, hosted by G2G, [7]
- 5. 4-8 September 2006, Timisoara, hosted by H.Arta and D Media, [8]
- 4. 11-16 July 2005, Graz, hosted by ETC, [9]
- 3. 11-18 July 2004, Belgrade, hosted by Women at Work, [10]
- 2. 30 June-6 July 2003, Athens, [11]
- 1. 9-11 August 2002, Pula, [12]

Articles

- Aileen Derieg, "Things Can Break: Tech Women Crashing Computers and Preconceptions", transversal, 2007. (German, Spanish)

External links

- Home page
- Old home page