

COMMON WALL

Common Wall is a project made for open appropriation that proposes a construction of a brick wall in the public space. The action proposes to unite and exhibit works of different languages, with no organization of information or authorship, creating also an invite to anyone who wants to spontaneously participate.

As a first try, the Public Order Bureau of the city of Rio de Janeiro obstructed the action.

