

VISITORS GUIDE TO THE FESTIVAL

festac '77

INTRODUCTION

The 2nd World Black and African Festival of Arts and Culture will take place in Nigeria from January 15 to February 12, 1977.

It is a momentous event which will have profound effect on the lives of Black and African peoples throughout the world. The Festival represents an effort to bring together all Black and African peoples so as to set in motion a new cultural awakening in the interest of their collective existence and progress.

75 countries and communities have signified their intention to take part in the Festival. It is estimated that 15,000 artistes and officials will participate and that over 35,000 visitors from all over the world will attend the Festival.

The information in this booklet is designed to assist visitors in planning their trip to Nigeria and make their visit comfortable. Further information can be obtained from the Zonal Secretariats listed elsewhere in this booklet or from:

AIMS OF THE FESTIVAL

To ensure the revival, resurgence, propagation and promotion of Black and African Culture and Black and African Cultural values and civilization.

To present Black and African Culture in its highest and widest conception.

To bring to light the diverse contributions of Black and African peoples to the universal currents of thought and arts.

To promote Black and African artists, performers and writers and facilitate their world acceptance and their access to world outlets.

To promote better international and interracial understanding.

To facilitate a periodic 'return to origin' by Black artists, writers and performers uprooted to other continents.

THE FESTIVAL EMBLEM

THE ROYAL IVORY MASK OF BENIN:
This 16th Century Ivory Mask has emerged through the years as one of the finest examples of known African and Black Art.

It was worn as a pectoral by Benin kings on royal ancestral ceremonial occasions; was last worn by King Overamwen who was dethroned at the fall of the Benin Empire in 1897. The same year it fell into the hands of the Consul General of the Niger Coast Protectorate, Sir Ralph Moor, and now rests in the British Museum.

The tiara formation at the crest of the mask is made of 10 stylised heads and symbolises the king's divine supremacy and suzerainty. The two incisions on the forehead which were originally filled with iron strips are royal tattoo marks. Round the neck the artist has carved the coral bead collar which is a common feature of the king's paraphernalia.

FESTIVAL FLAG

The flag of the Festival is a tricolor flag of three equal perpendicular rectangles.

The two outside rectangles are in Black and the central rectangle is in gold. Over the gold is superimposed centrally the Festival Emblem.

The Black colour represents the Black people of the world.

The gold colour represents the wealth of the culture of the areas and peoples embraced by the Festival and also stands for the non-Black peoples associated with Black people in the Festival.

IMMIGRATION

Nigerian immigration laws require all visitors to the country to obtain entry permits prior to arrival at the port of entry. These permits are obtainable at all Nigerian diplomatic missions. An applicant will be required to complete a form in triplicate and return to the issuing Embassy or High Commission with a valid passport and three passport-size photographs.

The intending visitor must also obtain an International Certificate of Vaccination as approved by the World Health Organisation. This booklet is a record of immunisations and should be duly stamped and signed by an authorised medical officer.

MONEY

The basic unit of currency in Nigeria is the Naira. One Naira (₦1.00) is equivalent to 100 kobo. Paper money comes in denominations of 50 kobo, ₦1, ₦5 and ₦10. They are distinguishable by size and colour. Coins are in denominations of ½ kobo, 1 kobo, 5 kobo, 10 kobo and 25 kobo.

Visitors should change their cheques, bills or currency to Nigerian money as soon as they arrive. This should be done only at banks and authorised hotels; receipts should be obtained.

It is illegal to export Nigerian currency.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

There is no limit to the amount visitors can bring with them into Nigeria. Visitors are advised to declare the exact amount they carry on the form which will be given to them at the port of entry. All foreign currency and cheques should be exchanged only at banks and authorised hotels. Please keep the receipts; you may need them to convert unspent Naira back to foreign exchange at the end of your visit.

₦1 is equivalent to about US $1.58 or 0.87 Sterling (as at December, 1976).

BANKS

Banks in Nigeria provide all services normally available in commercial banks. Visitors may find it more convenient and safer to transfer money direct from their countries to banks in Nigeria rather than carry large amounts of bank notes or even travellers' cheques. The list of banks provided here is only of major branches in Lagos of some of the banks.

TRANSPORTATION

The most interesting way to move around Lagos is by foot. But for those who are less adventurous there are bus services, taxis and ferries to cross the lagoon.

Car Hire: Lagos has a number of rent-a-car services to choose from. These operators provide chauffeur driven cars priced according to make of car and mileage. Average daily charges for service within Lagos area range from ₦26.00 for a Volkswagen Beetle or Peugeot 404 Saloon to ₦48.00 for a Mercedes Benz Automatic Saloon. Many operators charge extra for overnight service and excess above a stipulated daily mileage. Some give discounts for rentals for periods more than one week. Detailed information is available at hotel reception desks.

Bus: Fares on Lagos municipal buses are controlled by government and are cheap. Bus routes cover all major roads in the city. There is no official schedule but services begin as early as 5 a.m. and run till midnight. The government owned Lagos City Transport Service buses carry route numbers but others call out their destination. Fares for all routes vary from 5 kobo to 15 kobo.

Ferries: There is a regular ferry service between Lagos Island and Apapa. The boat leaves every 30 minutes on the hour and half hour. The departure point is at Marina. Fare is only 2 kobo one way.

Ferry services are available to the popular beach resort of Tarkwa Bay. The ferries depart from a jetty at Federal Palace Hotel every two hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays and every half hour at weekends and public holidays. The fare is ₦1.00 for adults and ₦0.50 for children.

Taxis: Lagos taxis are quite distinguishable by their bright yellow colour and black stripes. The fares quoted by taxi drivers may vary considerably, depending on distance, time of day and traffic situation. Fares are not fixed and are subject to negotiation. Taxis are available at any time of day or night.

Kaduna: The main form of transportation within Kaduna is the taxi. It is cheaper here than in Lagos. Although the fare within the township is on the average about 20 kobo per head, taxis in Kaduna may stop to pick more passengers, up to a maximum of four. A visitor who wishes to occupy the taxi alone should inform the driver and negotiate the fare.

SHOPPING

A visit to the markets will be of interest to visitors. The markets are well stocked with almost all consumer items. Prices depend on the bargaining skill of buyers. There are also big department stores where prices are fixed but, in most cases, higher than in the markets. Department stores are open from 8.30 a.m. till 5 p.m. Business in markets begins early in the morning and runs through till sunset.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

The Nigerian External Telecommunications Limited (NET) offers a wide range of telecommunication services. The company is wholly owned by the Federal Government. It has offices in Lagos and Kaduna.

For the convenience of visitors arrangements are being made to open telecommunication offices at the National Theatre, Festival Village and National Stadium in Lagos and the Durbar Pavilion in Kaduna. The services will include international telephone, telegraph and telex.

ANTIQUITIES

The Antiquities (Prohibited Transfers) Decree No. 9 of 1974 of the Federal Republic of Nigeria prohibits any person from buying any antiquity or selling any antiquity to any person other than the Director of Antiquities or a person or body authorised by him in writing.

Persons in possession or control of antiquities are required to register such. Failure to register may result in seizure and forfeiture of the antiquities. The Director of Antiquities may, for a fair price, compulsorily buy any antiquity from any person.

Visitors to FESTAC, if in doubt, are advised to seek expert opinion before purchasing such work of art from private sources in order to avoid contravention of the law of antiquity. The Nigerian National Museum at Onikan, near Tafawa Balewa Square, in Lagos is recommended.

FESTIVAL VENUES

The Festival will take place in Lagos and Kaduna. The principal venue is the ultra-modern National Theatre complex situated at the mainland end of Eko Bridge at Iganmu in Lagos. Still Photography: Films for all still cameras — black and white and colour — are available in all department stores and photographic shops in Lagos and Kaduna. For black and white stock, these can be processed within three days from sources of purchase. Colour prints may be handled in a few colour laboratories in Lagos only.

Cine Photography: Normal 8 mm and Super 8 mm films (colour) are available in major department stores in Lagos and Kaduna. Processing of such films are normally not handled in the country.

Negative & Reversal 16mm Films for both colour and black and white are also available in shops around Lagos, in standard rolls of 100ft and 400ft.

NATIONAL MUSEUM

Situated at Onikan just off Tafawa Balewa Square, the Nigerian National Museum is the principal agency for the collection and preservation of Nigeria's artistic antiquities. It has a large collection of works from all over Nigeria, some of which date back to several centuries. Interested visitors will find at the National Museum the largest single collection of Nigerian antiquities. It is open everyday from 7.30 a.m. Guides are always in attendance to assist visitors.

RELIGION

Freedom of worship is a constitutional right in Nigeria. Most Nigerians belong to one religious faith or the other — traditional or foreign. The major Christian and Islamic denominations are established in the country and churches and mosques abound in towns and villages. Visitors may worship in any church or mosque of their choice. There will be an interdenominational service for all christian visitors at the National Stadium on Sunday, January 16.
